Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."
But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, "Lord, help me." — Mt 15:22, 24-25

'It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs.' She said, 'Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters.' Then Jesus said to her in reply, 'O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.' And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

- Mt 15:26b-28

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

'O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.' Today's reading ends well. Jesus praises the Canaanite woman's faith and heals her daughter. But before this pleasant conclusion, we have the difficult scene between the woman and the Lord. First, he ignores her request, then he responds by talking about not throwing the food of children to dogs. Was this really as cruel as it sounds to our modern ears?

No. This is one of those passages where it is essential to understand the historical context. Jesus was not leveling a terrible insult at this particular woman. He was referring to a cultural reality of the day. Jesus was ministering outside of Jewish territory. This woman was a gentile of the region, not a member of the Jewish people. Thus, she belonged to the culture that worshipped idols and did not follow the Jewish rituals of cleanliness. Because of these practices, the Jews referred to Gentiles as 'unclean dogs.' This woman, however, proved herself as worthy as the Jewish 'children' at the table of the Lord. The Jews received God's blessing because they believed in God. This woman proved that she did too. She was also a believer who recognized Jesus as the Messiah, calling him, 'Lord, Son of David!' And Jesus responded in the end by treating her as one of his children, granting her request.

We too live in a culture that is more and more ignorant of the true God. We are surrounded by idols of all kinds, and by practices that are hardly clean. Like the Canaanite woman, we need the courage to be countercultural. Even when secular society might mock us, may we be willing, like this humble woman of the Gospel, to profess our faith with passion and persistence.

Festival Fun Facts

With our 2014 Parish Festival (the first as Christ the Redeemer Parish) behind us here are the “fun” facts with regard to some of the products used in preparing the homemade delicacies enjoyed during the week.

144 pounds of butter
1,050 gallons of cooking oil
525 pounds of home-made noodles
200 pounds of sausage
1,010 pounds of kielbasa
250 pounds of chicken tenders
600 pounds of french fries
5,750 pounds of potatoes
2,750 pounds of onions
900 pounds of cabbage
814 pounds of ground beef for stuffed cabbage
100 gallons of sauerkraut
240 dozen eggs
400 pounds of flour
50 gallons of pickles

Some Additional Fun Facts

Approximately...

62 dozen hard rolls
1,820 dozen or 21,840 individual pierogi
6,000 stuffed cabbage
30,000 potato pancakes
2,420 individual pizza fritz
400 hamburgers
40 pounds of hot dogs
170 cases of soda

... were served

Most importantly, and nearly impossible to measure, are the number of volunteer hours spent in the preparation of the grounds, making of batter, peeling of onions, cooking of food, selling of tickets, serving of food, cleaning of pots, pans, spoons, griddles, and fryers. All of which are needed in order to make the festival a success. While many know and recognize those individuals that worked the various booths and worked in the various kitchens during the festival, what goes unnoticed except by those directly involved, are the many hours behind the scenes and in the basement preparing for and cleaning up after the daily event.

There is no one job more important than the other, or one committee more devoted than the other, it takes the best effort of all those involved to make each year's festival a reality.

Please consider joining your parish family next year in making this all happen. It's much more than sweat equity, but community spirit and friendly cooperation with the help of the Good Lord who blesses us with good weather and good friends and makes it all happen. You could be a part of it too!

Retrouvaille A lifeline for troubled marriages

Thinking about Separation or Divorce? You Can Help Your Marriage – Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue ... or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse?

Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) is sponsored by the Family Life Office/Diocese of Metuchen, to help couples through difficult times in their marriages. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced.

For confidential information about the September program beginning with a weekend on Sept 26-28 call the Family Life Office 732-562-1990 x 1624 or visit the website at www.HelpOurMarriage.com.

Rose of Lima

Rose's baptismal name was Isabel, the daughter of Gaspar Flores and Maria de Oliva. But she was such a beautiful baby that she was nicknamed "Rose." It was a name that she took as her own at her confirmation. But she did not desire her beauty and considered it a distraction from her real love, Jesus. When her parents wished to marry her off, Rose refused, wanting to remain a virgin for Christ. Rose fasted regularly and prayed constantly. Her holiness became renowned. Even though she hoped to become a nun, her father would not permit it, and so Rose practiced the spiritual life as a lay member of the Third Order of St. Dominic. When Rose died at the age of thirty-one, her funeral was held at the cathedral in Lima and attended by many dignitaries. Numerous miracles were attributed to her. Pope Clement X canonized her in 1671, making her the first saint of the Americas.

*"For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable." -
Romans 11:29*

God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone.
