He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father."

"I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ. - Mt 16:19-20

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church." The name Peter is significant. It comes from a word that means "rock." When Jesus gives this new name to Simon, he is identifying this chosen apostle as a foundation upon which his church will stand. This verse, along with the constant practice of church tradition ever since that moment, explains the office of the papacy. The pope, even to this day, is a direct successor of Saint Peter. An unbroken historical line traces right back to Christ himself, when he gave "the keys to the kingdom of heaven" to Peter.

In establishing Peter as the first pope, Jesus was putting a structure in place that has proved to be a brilliant one. Because it is built on a firm foundation, the Catholic Church has been able to persevere for millennia through schisms, wars, scandals, and the persistent presence of sin in its all-too-human members. The church has maintained consistency and unity in her teaching thanks to the headship of the pope. It really is remarkable that an institution so old can still be so vital in this day and age. Thus far, the prophetic utterance of Christ remains true, "the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it."

Jesus must have been thinking of us, of all future Christians, when he established the papacy. Just as Jesus instructed Peter after the Resurrection to "Feed my lambs...feed my sheep," (Jn 21:15, 17), so too our Holy Father continues the mission to care for us like a good shepherd. We may be thousands of miles from him, but his prayers and his leadership serve our local Catholic community nonetheless. The pope's care for us will always be a reminder of the loving concern of Christ for his church.

Retrouvaille A lifeline for troubled marriages

Thinking about Separation or Divorce? You Can Help Your Marriage – Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue ... or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse?

Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) is sponsored by the Family Life Office/Diocese of Metuchen, to help couples through difficult times in their marriages. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced.

For confidential information about the September program beginning with a weekend on Sept 26-28 call the Family Life Office 732-562-1990 x 1624 or visit the website at www.HelpOurMarriage.com.

To register call Tom & Pat McTague 732-583-4468 (evenings) or Rich & Annette Colasuonno 732-236-0671 (days).

LUNCHEON TO HELP MOMS AND BABIES

On Sunday, September 14, beginning at 12:30 p.m., the 6th annual Women Empowering Women Luncheon will take place at the Polish American Citizens Club, Liberty Hall, 29 Kline Blvd., in Whitehouse Station. This festive event, also known as the “Moms and Babies Luncheon”, is held to raise funds for The Center for Great Expectations, a residential treatment center for homeless, pregnant adolescents and their children, and homeless, pregnant women in substance use recovery and their children. The Center is located at 19 Dellwood Lane, Somerset and welcomes adolescents, women and children throughout the state of New Jersey.

A resident of the Center will share her personal story of how she came to the CGE and how her life is changing as a result of the Center's programs. The silent auction selection includes many luxury and gift items to include everyone on your holiday list ... a great opportunity to start shopping early! There will be also special surprise gifts from the glamorous world of advertising. Luncheon will include pierogies, kielbasa and sauerkraut, meatballs with mushroom gravy, salads and a delicious array of desserts.

The Center provides a safe home where women and teens experience a healthy pregnancy and birth, and overcome the trauma resulting from past homelessness, abuse, poverty, and addiction. Through the programs and services at the Center, residents are taught how to change their lives and become nurturing mothers and empowered women who can manage a home, hold down a job, and be a good role model. The results affect not only their children's ability to succeed, but generations of children who follow. The programs at the Center are life saving and life changing for both mothers and children.

Tickets are $30 per person, and can be obtained by contacting Carolyn Moore at cmoore@us.lore.com or mail your check payable to “The Center for Great Expectations” to Mary Jean DiRoberto, 123 Kosciuszko Road, Whitehouse Station, NJ 08889.

SEAS Pre-Employment Ministry

At St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church in Three Bridges, our Pre-Employment Group meets to assist persons requiring guidance with resumes, interviewing, marketing, networking, time management as well as the use of social media when seeking employment. More importantly, our group supports one another as we pray and learn God's plan for our lives and career.

If you are unemployed, underemployed, or are employed and seeking an alternate career path, we are here to support you in finding the right position. Anyone is welcome to join the group!

We would like to extend an invitation to all parishes to participate in this ministry. Our first meeting for newcomers to the group will be held on Tuesday, August 26, from 7:30-8:30 pm, at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, 105 Summer Road, Three Bridges, in the Adult Conference Room, located across from the Parish Office (enter through the Office doors). If you are interested, please contact Deacon Mike Tomcho at mtomcho277@comcast.net or 908-400-3036, with any questions and to confirm your attendance.

Augustine was an important figure in the history of Christianity. He wrote about topics like predestination and original sin. Some of his doctrines separate Western and Eastern Christianity, and he defined some doctrines of Western Christianity. Example: Both Eastern and Western Churches believe there is original sin in the actions of Adam and Eve, but the Eastern Church, not influenced in this by Augustine, does not hold that humans share the guilt, although they experience death as a result. Augustine died while the Germanic Vandals attacked northern Africa.

“Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?” - Romans 11:35

St. Paul reminds us of a central fact of stewardship. We cannot give the Lord anything, because God already owns it all. God made everything. All that we can do is return a portion of God's many gifts back to Him. Sincere gratitude for our gifts opens our hearts to joyful generosity!

The next Knights of Columbus #6573 Bible Study will be on "The Acts of the Apostles". This fifteen week program will go over the early period of our Church.

"Another reason that Acts is timely today is that the cultural context in which the Church finds herself is in some ways more like that of the first-century Church than it has been at any time since. Vast numbers of people in contemporary society are ignorant of Christ and of the biblical worldview. Many are living a pagan, hedonistic lifestyle—not unlike the Gentiles whom Paul encountered in his missionary journeys throughout the Roman Empire. Social patterns often run counter to basic values such as the dignity of the person, the sanctity of life, or the Christian vision of marriage, sexuality, and family. Christians often find themselves subject to state pressure to conform to a secular agenda, and publicly witnessing to Christ sometimes provokes mockery, hostility, or even persecution." from the introduction by William S. Kurz, SJ

The cost is $25 to cover the cost of the book, video, etc., and should be paid by September 1. Checks can be made out to "KofC #6573", and placed in the basket or dropped off at the office. It will start September 11th at 7pm at the John Neumann Center in the Sacred Heart parking lot.
