PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

"They began to be distressed and to say to him, one by one, Surely it is not I?" During this dramatic scene at the Last Supper, we can picture Judas Iscariot, the betrayer, trying to play up his innocence as long as possible. He knew he had already betrayed Jesus, and if he joined in the "who, me?" ritual, he was just putting on appearances. But what about the others? The rest of the Twelve were deeply disturbed by the idea that they might betray Jesus. As we know, however, when push came to shove, Peter's fear of betraying Jesus was trumped by fear for his own life. "I do not know this man about whom you are talking," he said in order to protect himself. But notice Peter's reaction when he realized what he'd done: "He broke down and wept."

How different was humble Peter's response from that of prideful Judas, who acted as if he hadn't done anything wrong: "Who, me?" Both men were unfaithful to the Lord, but only Peter immediately felt real sorrow, what we traditionally call contrition, for his sin.

The betrayers in today's Gospel readings are not just these two men. We also follow the crowd who hailed Jesus one day with "hosannas!" and a week later nailed him with their angry "crucify him!" How quickly our faith can turn fickle. For some of us, it may be easy to condemn the crowd and Judas and Peter, thinking that we would never do such a thing: "Who, me?" But today, let us resolve not to be so proud as to think we are perfect disciples. Let us have the humility of Peter who wept over his imperfections and, ultimately, repented of his sins. Only when we acknowledge that we need God's help will we be able to hail him and praise him as he truly deserves.

BLESSED EASTER FARE – ŚWIĘCONKA

On Holy Saturday, the food to be eaten at the Easter feast (ham, coils of sausages, cakes of all kinds, in the center of which is the homemade coffee cake, Baba, and homemade bread, colored eggs, Pisanki, salt and pepper, wine, vinegar and horseradish mixed with grated beetroot) is blessed at the parish church. A little of each article of food is placed in a small decorated basket. The basket is lined with a white napkin, and another napkin covers the food until the church is reached. Every housewife tries to make her basket look the prettiest by tying a decorative bow on the handle with a sprig of green or maybe a pretty little branch of pussy willows, or little flowers. The basket is carried to the church by the housewives or children.

Easter Day (Wielkanoc) opens with Resurrection Mass, Rezurekcja. After the services in church, the family returns home and gathers around the table to eat their breakfast, consisting of the blessed fare. An egg is cut into as many pieces as there are persons present, with a few extra slices for guests who may drop in. Each person takes a piece of the “blessed egg” as it is passed by the head of the household, exchanging greetings of Wesołego Alleluja – Happy Easter, and wishes for a long life and happiness.

QUESTIONS ON THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

WHEN DOES THE TRIDUUM BEGIN AND END?

The Easter Triduum begins with the evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper, reaches its high point in the Easter Vigil and closes with evening prayer on Easter Sunday.

MAY ANOTHER MASS BESIDES THE MASS OF THE LORD’S SUPPER BE CELEBRATED ON HOLY THURSDAY?

Ordinarily, no other Mass may be celebrated on Holy Thursday. However, by way of exception, the local Ordinary may permit another Mass in churches and oratories to be celebrated in the evening, and, in the case of genuine necessity, even in the morning. Such Masses are provided for those who in no way are able to participate in the evening Mass.

HOW ARE THE HOLY OILS, CONSECRATED AND BLESSED ON HOLY THURSDAY, TO BE RECEIVED IN THE PARISH?

A reception of the oils may take place at the Mass of the Lord’s Supper. The oils, in suitable vessels, are carried in the procession of the gifts, before the bread and wine, by members of the assembly. A text for this can be found in the Sacramentary Supplement 2004 recently published by Catholic Book Publishing Company.

WHEN SHOULD THE CELEBRATION OF THE LORD’S PASSION TAKE PLACE?

Normally, it should take place in the afternoon, at about three o’clock to enable people to assemble more easily. However, pastoral discretion may indicate a time shortly after midday, or in the late evening, though never later than nine o’clock. Depending on the size and nature of a parish or other community, the local ordinary may permit the service to be repeated.

DOES THE CHURCH ENCOURAGE ANY OTHER LITURGICAL CELEBRATIONS ON GOOD FRIDAY?

On this day, the Office of Readings and Morning Prayer could appropriately be celebrated with the participation of the people in the churches.

DO DEVOTIONS HAVE A PARTICULAR IMPORTANCE IN GOOD FRIDAY?

The Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy (2002) provides the proper perspective in paragraphs 142-145. Clearly the central celebration of this day is the Good Friday Liturgy of the Lord’s Passion. In no way should manifestations of popular piety, either by the time or manner in which they are convoked substitute for this solemn liturgical action. Nor should aspects of the various acts of piety be mixed with the Good Friday celebration, creating a hybrid. In recent times, Passion Processions and celebrations of the Stations of the Cross and Passion Plays have become more common. In such representations, actors and spectators can be involved in a moment of faith and genuine piety. Care should be taken, however, to point out to the faithful that Passion Plays are a representation which is commemorative and they are very different from “liturgical actions” which are anamnesis, or the mysterious presence of the redemptive event of the Passion.

Thank You

Thank you to all who attended our Lenten Missions, both the Polish and English. Your faith and devotion will surely be rewarded.

Dziękuję również tym wszystkim parafianom i miłym gościom, którzy uczestniczyli w rekolekcjach parafialnych angielskich i polskich.

"Pilate again said to them, 'Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?' And they cried out again, 'Crucify him.'" – Mark 15:12-13
Jesus told us "whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me." Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Pray for the courage to stand up for those in need of our help.
