SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place.
- Mk 6:30-31b, 32

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. - Mk 6:34

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things." Jesus felt pity ... and so he taught? Yes. Jesus gave his teachings out of love and concern. He gave them because he knew that they were what his followers needed. He did not teach in order to control, manipulate, brainwash, or coerce us. He did not teach in order to show his wisdom or prove his superiority. Jesus gave us his teachings as a way of guiding us, protecting us, and walking alongside us--like a good shepherd.

It's important for us to welcome the teachings of Christ and his body, the church, in this spirit. Too often, people misconstrue church teaching as something restrictive or controlling instead of understanding that Jesus handed down these teachings to us in order to help us find happiness and fulfillment. When we live according to church teaching, we are doing more than just being "good." We are also staying close to the shepherd of whom today's psalm speaks: "In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul." These benefits are ours when we follow the voice of the One who loves us.

Sometimes, we may not like what the voice is saying. Sometimes we may be drawn towards a different path or think that the grass is greener elsewhere. But by humbly acknowledging that the Shepherd--and his church--have great wisdom and a unique perspective to share, we will be led in the right direction. Though it may feel like a sacrifice at first, ultimately this loyalty to the flock will enable us to enjoy the contentment of those who declare, "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want."

“EVERY CHILD IS A DIFFERENT KIND OF LITTLE FLOWER, AND ALL TOGETHER THEY MAKE THIS WORLD A BEAUTIFUL GARDEN”

BEATING THE HEAT WITH ARTIC WEEK - ICYMI: Christ the Redeemer Summer Program welcomed former CTK School alum Austin Melillo to share his pictures and videos of his research showing the wildlife and landscape of Antarctica. CTR Campers were fully engaged and had lots of questions for Austin about his experiences in Antarctica. Throughout the week students created some of the many animals such as whales, penguins, and walrus that live in the Arctic. Whoever knew learning could be such fun! Thanks Austin.

ROOT ROOT FOR THE HOME TEAM---Last week we also attended the Patriot's Game against the Camden River Sharks. The children were excited to attend and cheered their hearts out and had pictures with Sparky. A big thank you to the Somerset Patriots for providing these special camp days!

WITH POWER COMES RESPONSIBILITY---We are continuing our library walks on Thursdays. The theme at the library for the summer is superheroes. Our children have created several crafts such as superhero shields, Batman out of a toilet paper roll, and they even made Superman, Iron Man, Spiderman, and Captain America out of Legos! Head to the Manville Library and check out the Superhero display!

NEXT WEEK A TRIP TO STATE THEATER – DON'T MISS OUT ON THIS!!! YOU STILL HAVE TIME TO SIGN UP! LIKE US ON FACEBOOK (CHRIST THE REDEEMER SUMMER PROGRAM) AND CHECK OUT OUR PICTURES.

She is called "the Penitent". St. Mary was given the name 'Magdalen' because, though a Jewish girl, she lived in a Gentile town called Magdala, in northern Galilee, and her culture and manners were those of a Gentile. St. Luke records that she was a notorious sinner, and had seven devils removed from her. She was present at Our Lord's Crucifixion, and with Joanna and Mary, the mother of James and Salome, at Jesus' empty tomb. Fourteen years after Our Lord's death, St. Mary was put in a boat by the Jews without sails or oars - along with Sts. Lazarus and Martha, St. Maximin (who baptized her), St. Sidonius ("the man born blind"), her maid Sera, and the body of St. Anne, the mother of the Blessed Virgin. They were sent drifting out to sea and landed on the shores of Southern France, where St. Mary spent the rest of her life as a contemplative in a cave known as Sainte-Baume. She was given the Holy Eucharist daily by angels as her only food, and died when she was 72. St. Mary was transported miraculously, just before she died, to the chapel of St. Maximin, where she received the last sacraments.

James, son of Zebedee (died 44 AD) was one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus, and traditionally considered the first apostle to be martyred. He was a son of Zebedee and Salome, and brother of John the Apostle. He is also called James the Greater or James the Great to distinguish him from James, son of Alphaeus and James the Just. James the Greater is the patron saint of Spain and Portugal.

"...come away by yourselves to a lonely place and rest awhile." (Mark 6:31)

Do you spend time listening for God? Most of the time, He speaks in soft whispers. Open your heart and hear the Lord. Take time in silence everyday and ask God what it is He wants you to do. Consider making a retreat this year.
