Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to a mustard seed, the tiniest of seeds. When planted, the tiny mustard seed grows into a tremendous tree with large branches. So, too, in each of our lives, small things can have profound effects. God can use one of our more insignificant gestures to radically change another person's life. It may be the kindness of a smile, our willingness to accommodate someone, listening to someone's story, helping someone who is hurting, standing up for someone who is right, or complimenting someone on something they did. We all have God-given gifts and talents. Our task is to use them creatively, consistently, lovingly, and generously. We trust that God will take care of the rest.

11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"This is how it is with the kingdom of God." What is a kingdom? Is it the brick and mortar that build up the castle? Is it the expanse of land a king can reasonably defend? Our notions of kingdoms may be romanticized in the modern era, but for the Israelites, a kingdom held deep historical meaning. Thousands of years before the birth of Christ, the Israelites had asked God for a king. After the reigns of David and Solomon, the united kingdom dissolved into factions, and the land was conquered by the Assyrians, Babylonians, and, finally, Romans. For the Israelites, a kingdom was something to build, both structurally and civilly. While this had ended in ruin for their ancestors, many of Jesus' contemporaries longed for the restoration of an earthly kingdom.

Jesus' words in today's Gospel are a radical departure from this perspective. He compares the Kingdom of God to a field, but it appears that the farmer has little to do with its progress. "The seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord, the land yields fruit." Jesus introduces his followers to a new sort of kingdom, a kingdom where God provides the growth.

There is work to be done, of course. "When the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." But for the Kingdom of God to flourish, there are certain things that are outside of our control. We sow seeds of kindness, justice, and integrity? and then we must be patient. As shoots of faith appear, we nurture the growth with encouragement. As Christians, our task is not to build the Kingdom of God under our power alone, but to trust in the life-giving movement of God.

The month of June is devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. During the month of June, this takes place in our parish with devotions to the Sacred Heart on Mondays at 11:30AM in English and on Wednesdays and Fridays at 6:45PM in Polish at the Sacred Heart worship site.

The following are promises our Lord made to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, an apostle of the Sacred Heart in the year 1675. She and St. Columbiere were instrumental in establishing the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

I will give you all the graces necessary for your state in life.

I will establish peace in your families.

I will comfort you in all your afflictions.

I will be your secure refuge during life, and above all, in death.

I will give you a special blessing to all your undertakings.

Sinners will find in My Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.

Tepid souls will grow fervent.

Fervent souls will quickly mount to perfection.

I will bless every place where a picture of My Heart will be exposed/honored.

I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.

Those who will promote this devotion shall have their names written in My Heart – never to be blotted out.

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be praised, honored and adored now and forever.

PRAYER TO THE SACRED HEART

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, source of all goodness and healing, you have loved me from all eternity. Now I ask for the grace to love you in return. Please increase within me your gifts of faith, hope and love. I offer you my own heart, wounded by sin, crippled by unkindness; but not beyond your power to make whole again. Jesus, I ask that you continue to touch me, calm me, and heal me. Teach me to be gentle and humble of heart, to be patient and loving. In you I live and move and have my being. In you I am healed. Keep me close to you and the life and wholeness that you bring. When I stray, give me the grace to accept your invitation to return to you. Glory to you, O Most Sacred Heart; glory and praise and thanksgiving today and every day. Amen.

*Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place my trust in you.
(Say 3 times.)*

Keep Christ the Redeemer Parish in Mind during Your Summer Travels

Have fun on your summer vacations! We know you'll be out of town for a few Sundays this summer, but that doesn't mean you can't participate through your regular tithes. With ConnectNow Giving you can contribute from wherever you are... you can even set up payments in advance if you like! And when you give online, it helps us make our budget, even when attendance is low. Visit www.ctrmanville.com for the online giving link.

Wakacyjne wsparcie Christ the Redeemer Parish

Przez ostatnie lata wysokość składek niedzielnych w wakacje znacząco się obniżyła. Jest to związane z wakacyjnymi wyjazdami naszych parafian co w konsekwencji daje mniejszą ilością osób uczestniczących w niedzielnych nabożeństwach. Aby zatrzymać ten negatywny trend proszę o korzystanie z ConnectNow Giving („On-line Giving”). Dzięki tej usłudze możliwe jest łatwiejsze składanie ofiary na rzecz CTR Parish w sposób automatyczny lub jednorazowy przy użyciu kart kredytowej lub konta bankowego z dowolnego miejsca na ziemi gdzie działa internet. On-line Giving jest bezpieczne, daje ofiarodawcy całkowitą kontrolę nad swoim kontem. Dzięki temu systemowi parafia będzie miała stabilny dopływ środków finansowych pomimo mniejszej liczby osób w kościele w czasie wakacji. Dziękując za dotychczasowe wsparcie wszystkim życzę udanych wakacji i zachęcamy do korzystania z usługi „On-line Giving”!

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive good or evil, according to what he has done in the body." – 2 CORINTHIANS 5:10

We are all accountable for the gifts God has given us – our time, our talent and our treasure. Each of us is accountable not only for our own life but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what did we do with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?

Blessing of Fathers

God and Father of all creation,
we come before you today with humble hearts.
You are our model of a loving father.
When we fail and fall short of your expectations,
you are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.
Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.
Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.
We ask all this in the name of Jesus.
Amen.
