Do you describe yourself as a holy person? For many, becoming holy may not be seen as a desirous goal. We are all called to be holy but maybe not in the way we often imagined. Holiness is nothing more than doing ordinary things with great love and faith. St. Teresa of Calcutta says, "Holiness is not something extraordinary. Holiness is for every one of us as a simple duty -- the acceptance of God with a smile, at all times, anywhere and everywhere." Holiness has to do with understanding that our faith has a lot to do with how we see and live life. It is that simple. Are you willing to go about the simple business of your life and be holy?

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two." This Sunday we read the first sending of the Apostles to preach, teach, and heal. For many of us, it can be easy to think we "just don't have enough" to be disciples and evangelists ourselves. We don't have enough education and training. We don't have enough experience talking to people about Jesus. We don't pray enough. We don't have enough faith.

If you look at the Apostles in today's Gospel reading, they didn't have much either. "No food, no sack, no money in their belts." They didn't plan out their itinerary or book their lodging in advance. From what we know of the Apostles, they were not the religiously trained and educated ones. They were fisherman, tax collectors, and political activists. But what does being a fisherman require? Someone like Peter needed a strong work ethic to rise at strange hours. He needed patient calm to wait for the catch. Once ashore, he needed a savvy mind to fetch a good price for his labors.

As Peter became a fisher of men, he would need diligence to persevere through the hard journeys, long days, and persecution that awaited him. He would need patient calm with those who disagreed with him. As the leader of the Apostles, he would need a savvy mind to navigate challenges facing the early Church. From one perspective, Peter has nothing to offer the mission of Jesus. Thinking more creatively, one can see that -- joined with faith and love -- perhaps Peter had everything he needed. Jesus sends you as well. As you take stock of your own talents, consider how they might be offered as a gift to others. Maybe you already have more than enough.

Finance Council Votes Down Swimming Pool. The Finance Council along with the Trustees of the parish in a recent meeting decided that the proposal for a swimming pool on the parish grounds would be neither feasible nor a sign of good stewardship. Therefore, in a 7-0 vote the council firmly rejected the proposal. It is our duty to inform parishioners who have been coming to Mass these last weeks dressed for the pool that they go back to the use of regular attire for respectful and proper worship of the Lord.

We have had to replace our air conditioning unit in Sacred Heart Church. If anyone would like to donate to help defray this cost, we would greatly appreciate your generosity.

W kościele Sacred Heart został wymieniona klimatyzacja. Bez tej inwestycji kościół byłby niezdatny do użytku. Prosimy o ofiary na ten cel aby pokryć koszty tej jakże potrzebnej inwestycji.

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts."

MARK 6:8

How different we are from the Apostles who took nothing when they ventured out to serve God. Today, we make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. When we really put God first in everything and put money and possessions second, we experience more freedom to joyfully serve God and others.
