Alleluia! Christ is risen! We are called, by how we live our lives, to celebrate the risen Christ. How do we do that? Our faith in the resurrection gathers us here today to celebrate this incredible event. The good news is that the doors of eternity are open! We can now understand that the fullness of who we are will be discovered when we one day meet God face-to-face in heaven. Our faith in the truth of who God is and who we are affects how we live our lives and the decisions we make. We are called to love our neighbor...to love those who hurt us...to work on behalf of the poor and the weak...to be people of justice, integrity, and hope... to practice compassion and mercy above anything else. Our lives are meant to be oriented around the axis of the Gospel. Are they?

EASTER SUNDAY

Can you imagine that moment? Can you imagine the stomach drop with dizzying realization: "It's all true. All of it is true! The past three years weren't a dream that ended horribly wrong." Can you imagine all the doubts and despair of the past days chased away like smoke on the wind by a rolled up burial cloth? By an empty tomb?

It didn't start that way, of course. "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." This frantic news from Mary Magdalene would have been another unexpected blow. After all that happened, now his body has been stolen? The love and devotion in Peter and John is apparent. They don't wait to collect more information or stop by the tomb when they have a chance. They run to the site. When is the last time you ran for something? This isn't a run for exercise, but a huffing and puffing bolt fueled by desperation. Can you imagine that moment? The fear pounding in their temples, matching their accelerated heart rate. Can you imagine the impatient affection of John, who outruns Peter but refuses to enter the tomb alone? And then, upon entry, "He saw and believed."

This is the drama of our great feast! The promise that seemed lost has been found. The dead are raised. Long before the Easter eggs and ham, we are invited to meditate on this divine reality. We are invited to feel the desperation and joy of that first Easter Sunday deep in our bones. Because it is not just Mary's story. It's not Peter and John's story. It's our story. From the greatest defeat can come the most awe-inspiring victory, and this is true not just for our God, but for each one of us. He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Dear Parishioners and Guests,

Our centennial celebration of Roman Catholic Parish Life in Manville brought us through the celebration of the Holy Triduum and enhanced our spiritual life. As your parish priests and staff we wish all of you a Blessed Easter. May God bless you and keep you in His care.

We would like to thank all those who have prayed with us this past Lenten Season and again today. To those who decorated the churches, cleaned, sang, served or in any way made it possible for our churches to be such beautiful places of prayer, THANK YOU and MAY GOD BLESS YOU ALL!

Bible Study - 4 - 25 - 5 - 30 "No Greater Love- A Biblical Walk Christ's Passion" The cost is $30 per person and you will get both books included with the course. We have sold out of the books, but you are still welcome to join into view the videos and discussion. Filmed on location in the Holy Land, No Greater Love is a six-part video series and full-length book that reveals Christ's amazing love for us. Best-selling author Edward Sri guides you through the last hours of Christ's life in this biblical pilgrimage. While taking this study or reading this book, you will walk step-by-step with Jesus from the Garden of Gethsemane to the Mount of Calvary. Every step of the way, biblical experts reveal how Old Testament prophecies, messianic expectations, biblical symbolism, and historical context shed light on the mystery of Christ's suffering and death. With these insights, Catholics can come to a deeper understanding and appreciation of God's immeasurable and unconditional love—drawing closer to Jesus than ever have before. No Greater Love also features: Fr. Mike Schmitz, Jeff Cavins, Jennifer Fulwiler, Curtis Martin, Teresa Tomeo, Fr. Josh Johnson, and Elizabeth Sri. In this study, you will discover: The Biblical background to each scene in Christ's passion. What was Jesus going through at each moment? How did the Old Testament foretell of Christ's death? Why did Christ die for us? What did it accomplish? What was the meaning behind of the tearing of the temple veil, the crowning with thorns, and other events during Christ's Passion? Edward Sri also unpacks commonly misunderstood sayings of Jesus, such as: "Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass?"—Was Jesus thinking of backing out at the last minute? "My God, my God why have you abandoned me?"—Was Jesus really abandoned by the Father on the cross? "You have said so."—What does that mean? Most of all, Catholics who take this study will encounter God's love to the fullest. Pope Benedict XVI invites us to think of the Passion, not just as suffering, but also as the passion of a lover. For in the cross, we see God fully revealed as "a lover with all the passion of a true love". Jesus doesn't want our applause. He wants our hearts. Are you ready to draw closer to Jesus in his passion than you ever have before?

Mass Etiquette:

I'd like to address some Mass Etiquette items that have been on my heart recently. These guidelines are not "rules for the sake of rules," but they are meant to help us have a better encounter with the Lord.

1. Do not leave Mass early. We should stay to the end of the recession and the hymn that accompanies it. While there are from time to time exceptions to this (emergencies do happen), most who leave early don't need to and ought not to. I'm asking you: please stay through the final blessing. Masses here aren't that long, anyway.

2. Show up at least a few minutes early. Getting to Mass early allows you to pray and prepare yourself for Mass. Now I realize that sometimes it can be a challenge to get the little ones out the door on time. But it is a great thing to kneel and pray before Mass!

3. Don't chew gum in church. It breaks your fast, it's distracting, and it is considered impolite in any formal setting—especially Mass!

4. Fast before Mass. It is Church law that one fasts for at least 1 hour before receiving Holy Communion. Water and medicine can be consumed, of course. The purpose is to help us prepare to receive Jesus in the Eucharist.

My prayers and love!

Fr. Stan

AN EASTER PROCLAMATION

The hosts of heaven exult and sing aloud in mighty triumph!

Let the earth be glad as glory alights and night reigns no more.

Let the Church rejoice at the victory of her Lord and Master,

Who paid the debt of Adam,

Who frees those doomed to die,

Who heals the broken-hearted and bind up their wounds,

Who forgives the sinner and raises up the lowly,

Who destroys death forever,

Whose Kingdom shall have no end.

God our Father, eternal is your love for us!

Christ the Son, in victory you reign!

Holy Spirit, set the Easter fire ablaze in our hearts.

Together you live and reign and ransom your people,

one God forever and ever.

Amen.

Please Note...

For families and individuals who are registered at Christ the Redeemer Parish to be in good standing, they must attend Mass at Christ the King or Sacred Heart Church on a regular basis and use the church envelopes.

- Regular basis is not less than 75% of the time.
- The use of church envelopes is the only way we can determine attendance.

The amount of the donation in the envelopes is never a determining factor. The use of your envelope each week will tell us that you are attending regularly. This will avoid problems or embarrassments in the future.

WAŻNE!

- Często jedynym sposobem na poświadczenie wymaganej obecności, jest rejestr na podstawie kopert.

Wielkość ofiary (lub jej brak) nie jest brana pod uwagę!

Używanie przez was kopert w każdym tygodniu potwierdza wasze regularne uczestnictwo w niedzielnej Mszy Św. i pomaga w bezproblemowym załatwieniu jakichkolwiek formalności związanych z życiem w Kościele (ślub, bierzmowanie, pogrzeb...)

What does Earth Day mean? Frankly speaking, it is only up to you to decide whether to celebrate this holiday or to refuse doing this. However, we recommend you to join the great army of holiday makers, as in such a way you will be able to make your own contribution to the environment protection. Why not? – It is going to be a great job. In fact, Earth Day is considered to be an essential event. It is so important that it has its own flag with the image of one of the first photographs of our planet from space. In accordance with the establishers' points of view, this might be a sign of awareness that only joint efforts can solve global environmental and social problems on Earth.
