When the Lord saw her, he was moved with pity for her and said to her, "Do not weep." He stepped forward and touched the coffin; at this the bearers halted, and he said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother.

- Lk 7:13-15

10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"When the Lord saw her, he was moved with pity for her." A survey of the Gospels reveals many ways in which Jesus upheld the dignity of women. In a culture where women were considered second-class citizens, Jesus was never afraid to encounter women, to affirm them, and to welcome them among his followers. He regularly broke rules about interaction with women and understood the value of women's religious testimony. In today's Gospel we see another aspect of Jesus' respect for women.

Here we see that his heart was stirred by the situation of this grieving mother. The man who had died was "the only son of his mother, and she was a widow." In other words, this woman had just been stripped of her primary focus in life. Also, in this culture, a woman was protected by her father, her husband, or her son. Absent one of those men in her life, she was in an incredibly vulnerable position. This, along with the grief of losing her child, struck the Lord with pity. "Do not weep," he told her, clearly moved by her sorrow. And then, he did the impossible and restored the dead man to life. But he did more than this. After "the dead man sat up ... Jesus gave him to his mother." In other words, Jesus made a point to restore and affirm this woman's vocation as a mother.

In our culture, women have earned a much more respectable status and are no longer dependent upon men. But, at times, the noble and irreplaceable role of mother is still undervalued in society. Too often, women who devote themselves to this vocation are dismissed as unimportant. Christ himself reveals, through his ministry to this mother, that her role is vital. May we also find ways to affirm and serve the mothers in our midst.

KOFC# 6573 BIBLE STUDY - DANIEL: APOCALYPSE OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

On the surface, it tells a powerful story of God's faithfulness and constancy, even in the midst of great trial. D., as he analyzes and explains Daniel's content and symbolism, revealing the book's rich significance to the New Testament and to modern Christians. This "Catholic Courses" study is 8 sessions, and $20 per person for materials. Thursday nights at 7pm in the John Neumann Center.

During the summer months (July and August) we will be changing the Sunday Mass schedule to accommodate the smaller attendance and better make use of the priestly manpower. The Saturday Vigil Masses will remain the same. We will be eliminating the 8:30AM Mass at Sacred Heart and the 10:30AM Mass at Christ the King. This has been approved by our Bishop Checchio. The schedule will return to the usual one in September.

"And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, 'Do not weep.'" LUKE 7:13

This verse is a great reminder that the Stewardship lifestyle is one of service, putting God first and to "love one another." Unfortunately today, many people have "passion" for activities they enjoy - their job and off-work activities. Many times our "passion" to excel is at the expense of someone else. Maybe we need to focus on a little less passion for our individual concerns and a lot more compassion for others.
