Relationships are difficult, requiring honesty, dialogue, respect, and tolerance. We can easily offend one another, even by doing the simplest of things. Feelings can be hurt and relationships can become hurtful. Sometimes, our own wounds end up wounding others. When division or discord results, rather than responding with anger, judgment, and vindication, Jesus instructs us to be compassionate, tolerant, respectful, and forgiving. We can do this even when we have to confront someone with the truth, which may not always be well received. Even with our brokenness, we are all an image of God and should do all in our power to properly resolve conflicts.

23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." This is a fascinating promise. Jesus enlightens us today about the power of communal faith. He emphasizes that a gathering of like-minded believers, small though it may be, has a powerful effect. As he tells his disciples, "If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father."

Alright then, what are we waiting for? We should take Jesus up on this amazing offer! Going to Mass is one way to do so. When we gather together every Sunday, we do more than listen to readings and receive the Eucharist. We also PRAY together. The priest leads us in these prayers, of course, but we are meant to join with him, as the Second Vatican Council put it, with "fully conscious, and active participation" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, #14). We are to make the prayers our own by attentively joining in with them from our hearts. Mindlessly reciting "Amen" or absently whispering the words of the Our Father likely loses the effect Jesus was talking about in today's Gospel. But truly praying together with our parish community certainly fits the bill.

We need not be at church to fulfill this kind of prayer, however. It only takes two! Those of us who live with others can exercise communal prayer every day in our own homes, just by joining each other for a few moments of petition or praise. Those who live alone may need to reach out more deliberately, but it only takes a phone call to "gather together" with another believer and offer up our prayers. May we have the courage to invite others to join us as we bring our needs to God.

September 14th - "Getting to Know the Bible"- Video Free
September 21st - The Gospel of John-Jn 1:1-1:51
September 28th - The Gospel of John- Jn 2:1- Jn 2:22

KofC #6573 Bible Study at 7pm in the "Red School House" in Sacred Heart Parking Lot: corner of Main Street and W. Camplain Rd. The Gospel of John is a thirteen week study- $30 includes Catholic Commentary book, and video that goes with the study. Come and sign up by September 14th so we can order the books.

From the introduction...

"Pope St. Gregory the Great compared Scripture to a "smooth, deep river in which a lamb may walk and an elephant may swim." These words certainly apply to the Gospel of John. Within its pages are found divine teachings articulated with simple images such as water and light, memorable stories composed with literary and dramatic skill, and glimpses into the very mystery of God, proceeding from the most profound mystical illumination. Like the loaves and fishes multiplied by Jesus, the Gospel of John provides a superabundance of spiritual teaching, edification, and challenges to all its readers, whether beginners or experienced."

If you just want to "pop-in" and see what it is like- you are more than welcome. As a reminder, you do not have to be a "Knight" or even a Parishioner of our Parish. Come and invite your friends- even if they are not Catholic (yet). For more info contact Anthony Scarpantonio- ascarp@live.com 917-494-8141. Bishop James F. Checchio asks faithful of the Diocese of Metuchen to assist victims of Hurricane Harvey through special collection

August 31, 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Diocese of Metuchen,

It was nearly five years ago, in October 2012, that Superstorm Sandy hit parts of our diocese and many of our people went through something of what is now being experienced by the residents of eastern and southern Texas. In scope and level of devastation, Hurricane Harvey is being described as a natural disaster beyond anything our nation has ever experienced. In the aftermath of Sandy, our people were able to begin to rebuild their homes and their very lives through the support of parishes and dioceses throughout the United States.

Hurricane Harvey presents us with the opportunity to show to the grieving and displaced persons in Texas the same compassion that was so generously shown to us. I encourage the faithful of the Diocese of Metuchen to continue to pray for those who are suffering from this storm. I also invite you to participate in a special second collection, which I have asked to be taken up in our parishes the weekend of September 23-24. Please be generous as your means allow.

If it is more convenient, you may also donate online at <http://diometuchen.org> or write a check made payable to "Diocese of Metuchen" with "Hurricane Harvey" in the subject line and mail to: Hurricane Harvey Donation, Diocese of Metuchen, P.O. Box 191, Metuchen, NJ 08840-0191. We will accept donations through September 30 and then will forward all monies collected to the Catholic Charities in the dioceses affected by the storm.

Thank you in advance for your concern for our brothers and sisters in great need.

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James F. Checchio, JCD, MBA
Bishop of Metuchen

"You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel." - EZEKIEL 33:7

Many of us are generous with our gifts. However, how often is our generosity at the minimum level required? We do just enough or give just enough. Remember, the Lord calls us to be generous with all the gifts He has given us, to grow them and return them with increase.

INTERESTED IN CATHOLICISM?

Often, spouses or friends have worshiped with us for some time, even years, yet they are not Catholic. Does this describe you? Would you like to learn more about the faith that forms this community where you have been worshipping? Do you have questions about Catholicism that have not been satisfactorily answered? Would you like to receive the sacraments of Baptism, First Eucharist or Confirmation? If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, please see or call Deacon Bill Stefany (908-725-7236) or complete and clip the form below and drop it into the collection basket at Mass.

Scrip Cards - Great Gifts For School

It is time for many of you to get your children ready for school. Whether they are attending classes for the first time or if they are on their way to college, what better way to send them off than to have some script cards for them to use. We offer a wide assortment of cards that can easily be used by children of almost any age in case of an emergency. Students would welcome having a gas, grocery, pizza, school supply, clothing card in their backpack or wallets in case they run low on funds. What better, safer way to equip your children then by giving them a variety of scrip cards instead of cash. Order forms can be found at the back of the Christ The King and Sacred Heart worship sites. Not only will the purchase of these cards help our young parishioners get through school, but a % of the money comes back to our Parish. It is a win/win for everyone.
