The Sanctuary Lamp in Sacred Heart will burn this week for the repose of the soul of Joseph Repka at the request of his wife and family.

The Altar Bread & Wine in Sacred Heart is consecrated this week in memory of Wojtek Karpa at the request of the Grzeczkwiz Family.

The Sanctuary Lamp in Christ the King will burn this week for the repose of the soul of Charles Schlenker at the request of his sons, David and Michael.

The Altar Bread & Wine in Christ the King is consecrated this week in memory of Chester Kuchnicki at the request of Mary Carol and Bernadette.

Our liturgy, with its very dramatic and poignant readings, immerses into all of the raw emotions life can often bring. We hear of betrayal, fear, anger, disappointment, confusion, suffering, and even death. The veil of injustice is pulled over the life of the innocent Lamb and God, who walked with us, is called to face his death on the cross. Yet Jesus remains faithful and accepts the fate that is before him. In all of this, he never wavers from the truth and continues to speak of mercy, forgiveness, and a God who loves. When life gets the best of us and brings us to our knees, can we remain faithful to the truth and accept what we cannot control?

PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

"Peter said to him in reply, 'Though all may have their faith in you shaken, mine will never be.'" Peter thought pretty highly of his faith. On the eve of Christ's death he professed, in essence, that he was more committed to Jesus than anyone else. And yet, we know how the story turns out: when put to the test in the moment that mattered, Peter "began to curse and to swear, 'I do not know the man.'"

On this Palm Sunday, we hear many stories of betrayal. The crowds, who once hailed Jesus with "hosannas," will soon be chanting, "Let him be crucified!" Judas, who was counted among the closest companions of the Lord, turns him over to the chief priests for thirty pieces of silver. And Peter falls short in the moment of truth, and then "went out and began to weep bitterly."

Here in the hours before Christ faces crucifixion, he is surrounded by false friends. Just when he most needs the support, he is abandoned. No wonder he feels the suffering even of being forgotten by his Father while he hangs on the cross, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" What trials Jesus endured, not only physically but emotionally as well. It's easy to glaze over this as a story from the past that does not involve us. But in truth, Jesus suffered all of this for each one of US. He would have preferred things to go otherwise, but submitted to his Father's will because he knew "it must come to pass in this way." Jesus' passion and death took place in order to bring US salvation. So today, may we not be counted among his many betrayers, but may we be truly grateful for the gift of the cross and show it through a life of sincere faith.

MONDAY, APRIL 10

CHRISM MASS OF HOLY WEEK – St. Francis of Assisi Cathedral, Metuchen – 7:30PM. Bishop Bootkoski will celebrate this Mass with all his priests. On this evening the Bishop also blesses and consecrates the oils to be used in the sacraments throughout the churches of the Diocese. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this ancient, grace-filled and beautiful Liturgy.

TUESDAY, APRIL 11

We are in need of the following items. Food: Beef Stew, Spinach, Canned Chicken, Tuna & Ham, Canned Spinach, Corn & Potatoes, Oatmeal, Granola Bars, Canned Fruit, Pasta and Pasta Sauce, Cereal, Peanut Butter and Jelly, Individual Snack Packs: Pretzels & Chips Crackers, Pudding, Beef Broth, Tomato Soup & Sauce. We are in particular need of the following items. These items are requested each week . There is always an urgent need for them: Health and Beauty Aids, Toilet Paper-Large Demand, Paper Towels-Large Demand, Razors, Shampoo, Body Wash.

The Caritas Team also collects monetary donations and gift cards to local grocery stores. Please place all donations in the collection basket at Mass in an envelope marked Caritas. You can also donate on line at www.ctrmanville.com under the Caritas link. Thank you for the generous donations we have been receiving with the on-line program and at the church.

BLESSED EASTER FARE – ŚWIĘCONKA

On Holy Saturday, the food to be eaten at the Easter feast (ham, coils of sausages, cakes of all kinds, in the center of which is the homemade coffee cake, Baba, and homemade bread, colored eggs, Pisanki, salt and pepper, wine, vinegar and horseradish mixed with grated beetroot) is blessed at the parish church. A little of each article of food is placed in a small decorated basket. The basket is lined with a white napkin, and another napkin covers the food until the church is reached. Every housewife tries to make her basket look the prettiest by tying a decorative bow on the handle with a sprig of green or maybe a pretty little branch of pussy willows, or little flowers. The basket is carried to the church by the housewives or children.

Easter Day (Wielkanoc) opens with Resurrection Mass, Rezurekcja. After the services in church, the family returns home and gathers around the table to eat their breakfast, consisting of the blessed fare. An egg is cut into as many pieces as there are persons present, with a few extra slices for guests who may drop in. Each person takes a piece of the “blessed egg” as it is passed by the head of the household, exchanging greetings of Wesołego Alleluja – Happy Easter, and wishes for a long life and happiness.

QUESTIONS ON THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

WHEN DOES THE TRIDUUM BEGIN AND END?

The Easter Triduum begins with the evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper, reaches its high point in the Easter Vigil and closes with evening prayer on Easter Sunday.

MAY ANOTHER MASS BESIDES THE MASS OF THE LORD’S SUPPER BE CELEBRATED ON HOLY THURSDAY?

Ordinarily, no other Mass may be celebrated on Holy Thursday. However, by way of exception, the local Ordinary may permit another Mass in churches and oratories to be celebrated in the evening, and, in the case of genuine necessity, even in the morning. Such Masses are provided for those who in no way are able to participate in the evening Mass.

HOW ARE THE HOLY OILS, CONSECRATED AND BLESSED ON HOLY THURSDAY, TO BE RECEIVED IN THE PARISH?

A reception of the oils may take place at the Mass of the Lord’s Supper. The oils, in suitable vessels, are carried in the procession of the gifts, before the bread and wine, by members of the assembly. A text for this can be found in the Sacramentary Supplement 2004 recently published by Catholic Book Publishing Company.

WHEN SHOULD THE CELEBRATION OF THE LORD’S PASSION TAKE PLACE?

Normally, it should take place in the afternoon, at about three o’clock to enable people to assemble more easily. However, pastoral discretion may indicate a time shortly after midday, or in the late evening, though never later than nine o’clock. Depending on the size and nature of a parish or other community, the local ordinary may permit the service to be repeated.

DOES THE CHURCH ENCOURAGE ANY OTHER LITURGICAL CELEBRATIONS ON GOOD FRIDAY?

On this day, the Office of Readings and Morning Prayer could appropriately be celebrated with the participation of the people in the churches.

DO DEVOTIONS HAVE A PARTICULAR IMPORTANCE IN GOOD FRIDAY?

The Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy (2002) provides the proper perspective in paragraphs 142-145. Clearly the central celebration of this day is the Good Friday Liturgy of the Lord’s Passion. In no way should manifestations of popular piety, either by the time or manner in which they are convoked substitute for this solemn liturgical action. Nor should aspects of the various acts of piety be mixed with the Good Friday celebration, creating a hybrid. In recent times, Passion Processions and celebrations of the Stations of the Cross and Passion Plays have become more common. In such representations, actors and spectators can be involved in a moment of faith and genuine piety. Care should be taken, however, to point out to the faithful that Passion Plays are a representation which is commemorative and they are very different from “liturgical actions” which are anamnesis, or the mysterious presence of the redemptive event of the Passion.

"As they were marching out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; this man they pressed into service to carry his cross." MATTHEW 27:32

The Lord calls us to love God and to love our neighbor. Every day we are presented with opportunities to love our neighbor and help him "carry his cross". These opportunities aren't usually big events, they are usually ordinary occurrences like helping someone carry their groceries or holding the door open for them. The key is putting the other person's needs before our own and not expecting anything in return.
