PALM SUNDAY

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

Today some of the most poignant themes of human life come into clear central focus: the feeling of being praised and honored, fear, anxiety, betrayal, despair, doubt, uncertainty, trust, hope, sadness, separation, suffering, death, determination, and courage. These are the emotions and realities that every human being wrestles with often. Jesus, the Son of God, encounters them all. As we journey through life, we have to confront the existential meaning of each of these things. How do they fit into the bigger picture? Jesus shows us most clearly that even those things we fear the most lose their power when we discover that we are being led to new life. Suffering is redemptive. Sin and death give way to grace and life and God's unconditional love conquers all. May we see in Jesus' Way of the Cross the path of truth we all must follow.

PALM SUNDAY

Our humanity bleeds through today's Gospel passages in more ways than one. We see both elation and fall, hope in the midst of the darker sides of our natures. If we allow it, these Gospels hold a mirror to our own fickle hearts. The crowds cry "Hosanna" and the Apostles profess allegiance unto death. In a manner of days - even hours - Jesus is betrayed, abandoned, denied, condemned, tortured, and executed. As God, he could have stopped this horrific narrative from unfolding, but he doesn't. He allows free will to play itself out.

There are nearly two millennia between this spectacle and us. We can stand safely removed, if we choose. But Lent invites us to return to this story. Lent invites us to find ourselves in the people we encounter there. Are we the repentant woman at Bethany? Are we naysayers of such lavish piety? Have we acted in a way that betrays those we love or denies what we know to be good and true? Have we fallen asleep in our faith? Have we unfairly accused others of a crime or immorality we imagine, though perhaps they didn't commit? Do we help others carry their burdens? Do we stand in solidarity with those who suffer? Do we care for the dying?

This week, take up today's Gospel again. Look carefully at the Passion narrative and sit with it in silence. Find yourself in the story and ponder its meaning for your own life. Journey with Jesus to the foot of the Cross so that you too may say, along with the faithful centurion, "truly this man was the Son of God!"

BLESSED EASTER FARE – ŚWIĘCONKA

On Holy Saturday, the food to be eaten at the Easter feast (ham, coils of sausages, cakes of all kinds, in the center of which is the homemade coffee cake, Babka, and homemade bread, colored eggs, Pisanki, salt and pepper, wine, vinegar and horseradish mixed with grated beetroot) is blessed at the parish church. A little of each article of food is placed in a small decorated basket. The basket is lined with a white napkin, and another napkin covers the food until the church is reached. Every housewife tries to make her basket look the prettiest by tying a decorative bow on the handle with a sprig of green or maybe a pretty little branch of pussy willows, or little flowers. The basket is carried to the church by the housewives or children.

Easter Day (Wielkanoc) opens with Resurrection Mass, Rezurekcja. After the services in church, the family returns home and gathers around the table to eat their breakfast, consisting of the blessed fare. An egg is cut into as many pieces as there are persons present, with a few extra slices for guests who may drop in. Each person takes a piece of the "blessed egg" as it is passed by the head of the household, exchanging greetings of Wesołego Alleluja – Happy Easter, and wishes for a long life and happiness.

QUESTIONS ON THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

WHEN DOES THE TRIDUUM BEGIN AND END?

The Easter Triduum begins with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, reaches its high point in the Easter Vigil and closes with evening prayer on Easter Sunday.

MAY ANOTHER MASS BESIDES THE MASS OF THE LORD'S SUPPER BE CELEBRATED ON HOLY THURSDAY?

Ordinarily, no other Mass may be celebrated on Holy Thursday. However, by way of exception, the local Ordinary may permit another Mass in churches and oratories to be celebrated in the evening, and, in the case of genuine necessity, even in the morning. Such Masses are provided for those who in no way are able to participate in the evening Mass.

HOW ARE THE HOLY OILS, CONSECRATED AND BLESSED ON HOLY THURSDAY, TO BE RECEIVED IN THE PARISH?

A reception of the oils may take place at the Mass of the Lord's Supper. The oils, in suitable vessels, are carried in the procession of the gifts, before the bread and wine, by members of the assembly. A text for this can be found in the Sacramentary Supplement 2004 recently published by Catholic Book Publishing Company.

WHEN SHOULD THE CELEBRATION OF THE LORD'S PASSION TAKE PLACE?

Normally, it should take place in the afternoon, at about three o'clock to enable people to assemble more easily. However, pastoral discretion may indicate a time shortly after midday, or in the late evening, though never later than nine o'clock. Depending on the size and nature of a parish or other community, the local ordinary may permit the service to be repeated.

DOES THE CHURCH ENCOURAGE ANY OTHER LITURGICAL CELEBRATIONS ON GOOD FRIDAY?

On this day, the Office of Readings and Morning Prayer could appropriately be celebrated with the participation of the people in the churches.

DO DEVOTIONS HAVE A PARTICULAR IMPORTANCE IN GOOD FRIDAY?

The Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy (2002) provides the proper perspective in paragraphs 142-145. Clearly the central celebration of this day is the Good Friday Liturgy of the Lord's Passion. In no way should manifestations of popular piety, either by the time or manner in which they are convoked substitute for this solemn liturgical action. Nor should aspects of the various acts of piety be mixed with the Good Friday celebration, creating a hybrid. In recent times, Passion Processions and celebrations of the Stations of the Cross and Passion Plays have become more common. In such representations, actors and spectators can be involved in a moment of faith and genuine piety. Care should be taken, however, to point out to the faithful that Passion Plays are a representation which is commemorative and they are very different from "liturgical actions" which are anamnesis, or the mysterious presence of the redemptive event of the Passion.

- MARK 15:12-13

Jesus told us "whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me." Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Pray for the strength and courage to stand up for those in need of our help.

Thank you to all who attended our Lenten Missions, both the Polish and English and the Walking (Indoor) Stations of the Cross. Your faith and devotion will surely be rewarded.
