The Altar Bread & Wine in Christ the King is consecrated this week in memory of John Urbaniak at the request of his wife & children.

Are we content and satisfied with the bare minimum and essentials of our faith, or do we desire excellence and proficiency? The Ten Commandments represent the minimum and, if we are honest with ourselves, are pretty easy to keep. The fullness of the Gospel, however, is another story. Truly living as Jesus taught often comes with great self-sacrifice, self-emptying, and possibly leaving the things of this world behind. Are we ready to pursue this kind of life? God wants us to live and love abundantly not superficially. Love asks that we extend ourselves beyond the status quo and the bare minimum and venture into that which is risky, countercultural, and even radical. What we possess can no longer be important. When Jesus laid this out before the rich young man, he went away sad because he had much. When Jesus lays it out before us, how do we react?

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Christian author C.S. Lewis once wrote that Christianity is not so much about being nice people but in being "new men." We see this contrast in today's Gospel. "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus first answers in the predictable way. Follow the commandments! "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Perhaps for some of us it's easy to answer this way. "I'm a good person!" he seems to reply. Does he truly follow all the commandments he professes to follow? Does he -- in word and deed -- check off all the boxes of the moral law? Perhaps. Whether he's being honest or fudging the truth, Jesus accepts his answer at face value with compassion. "Jesus, looking at him, loved him."

But he's not done yet! Jesus wants to remind us that this attitude alone is not enough. "Go, sell what you have? then come, follow me." Jesus' invitation to the young man is radical. Abandon everything that gives you any sense of security. Give it all up for an unknown future with a wandering preacher.

The Christian life is not easy. "How hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!" It's easier, Jesus says, for a gigantic camel to squeeze itself through a tiny needle's eye. But the God of the universe creates out of nothing, breaks the bars of hell, and raises the dead to life. Is a needle's eye really such an obstacle? Jesus' invitation is always bigger than our own limitations. This week, what do we need to offer up? How is Jesus inviting us to follow him?

Bible Study: Thursdays at 7pm in the "Red Schoolhouse" in the Sacred Heart parking lot on W. Camplain Rd & Main St. The first night is October 25th with An Intro to Bible Study/Discussion on how this year's Study will be different from the past. Hint- with all that has been coming out, and happening in our Church lately, an ever increase into the knowledge of our Church and Apologetics is needed. So this year, every night will be an independent Study. It will be focused on how we as Church Laity, can heighten our understanding, and defense of our beliefs. We will watch a video highlighting the night's discussion from leading Catholic priests, authors, teachers, and have a discussion on the topic. There will be no books to purchase and costs will be based on a "sliding-scale" of $1-5 dollar donation per person/night. Though as always- costs should not deter you from coming. Some topics will include- "Why be Catholic", "Answering Atheists", "Holy Eucharist", "Church History", amongst others. Unfortunately, due to the current crisis in the Church in general, many people are leaving. A person shouldn't leave "The Truth" because of the actions of some. One should pray, learn their Faith, and learn how to take action the correct way. We are part of the Body (the Church), and when one part is ill, it is up to all of us to help the Whole. I encourage all of our parishioners to invite, especially those who are interested or even those who might have left, to come to these Studies. No Study November 1st- All Saints Day, we will resume November 8th with "Why be Catholic" with Patrick Madrid.

Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts: our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other
