Palm Sunday of the Passion of Our Lord

Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, "To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it runs contrary to what others are saying. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, in order to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues." Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved and unjust death are all played out in dramatic fashion today. Jesus spoke of God's unconditional love, mercy, and forgiveness. Who doesn't like hearing about love, especially God's? Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering, and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God's love. All of those things occurred because of the implications of actually believing in God's love.

God's love comes with an intimate and equal bond with love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to truly see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God's kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy, and forgiveness. Sometimes, people want to keep God's love to themselves and use it solely for their own benefit. When they only want to use God's love to justify their own intentions and for their own projects, problems occur.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look very attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that the sin expounds. This is what happened on Calvary. When you begin actually doing what Jesus is saying and translate love into action, it inevitably will upset popular and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these serve to protect status, foster personal gain and success, and further divide those who have from those who do not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear, at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cower back in fear and join the throngs shouting, "Crucify him!" There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough "to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues."

It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to then accept the consequences of doing so.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

To be a community of love, a family that joyfully proclaims and bears witness to the Gospel, and which serves the poor and one another.

HOLY WEEK SCHEDULE

TUESDAY, APRIL 12

CHRISM MASS OF HOLY WEEK – St. Francis of Assisi Cathedral, Metuchen – 4:00PM. Bishop Checchio will celebrate this Mass with all his priests. GOOD FRIDAY, APRIL 15

Christ suffered and died for our salvation on Friday. On the Friday we call "Good" the Church gathers to commemorate Jesus' Passion and death. Good Friday is the day of fasting and abstinence. The Good Friday fast is the Paschal fast – a fast of anticipation and longing for the Passover of the Lord, which should continue, when possible, through Holy Saturday.

THE PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED TODAY. In case of an emergency please call 725-0072.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS FOR CHILDREN in English—10AM.

SOLEMN LITURGICAL SERVICE COMMEMORATING THE PASSION AND DEATH OF THE LORD AT 3PM in English. In Polish the service will take place at 6PM. Holy Communion will be distributed at these services only!

Each year on Good Friday, the Pope invites Catholics throughout the world to financially support the Franciscans who receive pilgrims and maintain the sacred shrines in the Holy Land. Some of our parishioners have been to these sacred shrines and know the importance of being in the places where Jesus walked and prayed. This year the financial needs are especially acute because the Coronavirus has eliminated pilgrimages to the Holy Land. The Pope is requesting your generosity for this collection that will be taken on Good Friday.

"...I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me. " (LUKE 22:34)

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet not to cause a disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you don't think you know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful dialogue when the opportunity arises. Joyfully share your faith with others.

We need your help! Summer Camp 2022 (20th anniversary) is coming July 11-16 and it can't take place without the help from volunteers. After a two year hiatus due to Covid, we are looking for people to come and spend the week with us and the kids. Kitchen help is needed to prepare snacks and lunch each day for everyone; teachers are needed for all age groups; and also a nurse/EMT volunteer to be here in case of emergencies. If you can give your time, whether the whole week or certain days, please call the parish office or email Camp Director Mary Ellen Day at ctramp@yahoo.com. Camp meetings are usually scheduled before camp begins. Camp is always a great, fun week which everyone enjoys so please consider joining us!!

CENTER for GREAT EXPECTATIONS: A Place, Presence & Paths

The Center for Great Expectations, a close neighbor in Somerset, is a most remarkable organization that cares for single women who have children or are pregnant. Most of these women have been homeless, drug dependent, and come from abusive homes. CGE provides a stable Place for them to live for up to 2 years; Presence with intense counseling, baby care, mother-child bonding; and finds them Paths to independent living. The Center's focus is inspirational – the relationship between mother and child.

You can financially help the Center for Great Expectations and its pro-life philosophy by participating in the Baby Bottle Brigade. You likely have loose change collected in a dish somewhere. Place your change (paper currency or checks also work well) into a bottle like the one shown below that a member of the Knights of Columbus and Holy Name Society will offer after all the Masses on Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday. Place your filled bottles into a bassinet located in the front of the Church. On Mother's Day, May 8th, the Knights and Holy Name Society will be collecting your filled bottles and taking your offerings to the CGE to help these women with a Place, Presence, and Paths.

To learn more about the important work of the CGE, visit their website, <https://www.cge-nj.org>.

NEED to BORROW A BABY BASSINETTE

The Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society would like to borrow a baby bassinette from Easter to Mother's Day to conduct the Baby Bottle Brigade --- a fundraiser for Great Expectations, an organization that supports single mothers. The bassinet will be kept in the Church near the altar to Mary. Please call the parish office at 908-725-0072 if you have a bassinette you are willing to loan.
