Pentecost

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day.

Jesus said to his disciples: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." - Jn 14:23

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

St. Josemaria Escriva tell us, "To live according to the Holy Spirit means to live by faith and hope and charity. To allow God to take possession of our lives and to change our hearts, to make us resemble him more and more." Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit given freely by God to us. The Holy Spirit is the very breath of God and the true source of our power and strength. When we accept that God is the beginning and the end of all things, we open ourselves to receiving this powerful presence. The Holy Spirit alone is the one who teaches us how to pray, who stirs us to lift our eyes to heaven in search of our Creator and opens them to recognize the wonderful gifts of faith, hope, and love God gives us. The Holy Spirit is the one who teaches us how to understand ourselves, God, others, and the world. When we allow God's Own breath to truly take possession of us, we realize that we are meant to become like God and know Him as He really is. This ultimate helper lifts our eyes from what is below to what is above and empowers us to live life with joy and keener vision!

The month of June is devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. During the month of June, this takes place in our parish with devotions to the Sacred Heart on Mondays at 11:30AM in English and on Wednesdays and Fridays at 6:45PM in Polish at the Sacred Heart worship site.

The following are promises our Lord made to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, an apostle of the Sacred Heart in the year 1675. She and St. Columbiere were instrumental in establishing the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

I will give you all the graces necessary for your state in life.
I will establish peace in your families.

I will comfort you in all your afflictions.

I will be your secure refuge during life, and above all, in death.

I will give you a special blessing to all your undertakings.
Sinners will find in My Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.

Tepid souls will grow fervent.

Fervent souls will quickly mount to perfection.

I will bless every place where a picture of My Heart will be exposed/honored.

I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.

Those who will promote this devotion shall have their names written in My Heart – never to be blotted out.

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be praised, honored and adored now and forever.

PRAYER TO THE SACRED HEART

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, source of all goodness and healing, you have loved me from all eternity. Now I ask for the grace to love you in return.

Please increase within me your gifts of faith, hope and love. I offer you my own heart, wounded by sin, crippled by unkindness; but not beyond your power to make whole again. Jesus, I ask that you continue to touch me, calm me, and heal me. Teach me to be gentle and humble of heart, to be patient and loving. In you I live and move and have my being. In you I am healed. Keep me close to you and the life and wholeness that you bring. When I stray, give me the grace to accept your invitation to return to you. Glory to you, O Most Sacred Heart; glory and praise and thanksgiving today and every day. Amen.

*Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place my trust in you.
(Say 3 times.)*

In 2018, Pope Francis decreed that the Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church be inserted into the Roman Calendar on the Monday after Pentecost (also known as Whit Monday) and to be celebrated every year.^[5] The decree was signed on February 11, 2018, the memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes, on the 160th anniversary of the Lourdes apparitions. It was issued on March 3, 2018.
