GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 1, 2026

All Saints' Day

Matthew 5:1-12

At the end of her short life, my hero, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, found herself in a curious position. Audaciously, she was convinced that she would become a great saint and would be loved by many after her death. At the same time, she insisted that she was weak, impatient, and ordinary. She became arguably the greatest saint in modern times. How is it possible that an ordinary and imperfect person can also be a great saint?

On this All Saints' Day, Jesus overturns our assumptions about holiness. He says, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:3). The blessed are not the impressive or the self-sufficient, but the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the persecuted. These are not heroic traits by normal standards. They are signs of a heart that has learned to rely on God rather than itself. That's what St. Thérèse, and all the saints, are all about.

All Saints' Day is not a celebration of spiritual elites. Rather, it announces what grace can do in our ordinary lives. The saints are not those who avoid weakness or suffering, but those who allow these things to deepen their trust. What good news for us! The smaller and weaker we are, the more qualified we are to be great saints.

— Father John Muir

MEDYTACJA NAD EWANGELIĄ

1 listopada 2026 r.

Uroczystość Wszystkich Świętych

Ewangelia: Mt 5, 1–12

Pod koniec swojego krótkiego życia św. Teresa z Lisieux znalazła się w dość niezwykłej sytuacji. Z odwagą i przekonaniem wierzyła, że zostanie wielką świętą i że po śmierci będzie kochana przez wielu ludzi. Jednocześnie nieustannie podkreślała, że jest słaba, niecierpliwa i zwyczajna. A jednak stała się jedną z największych świętych czasów współczesnych. Jak to możliwe, że człowiek zwyczajny i niedoskonały może jednocześnie osiągnąć wielką świętość?

W uroczystość Wszystkich Świętych Jezus odwraca nasze wyobrażenia o świętości. Mówi: „Błogosławieni ubodzy w duchu, albowiem do nich należy królestwo niebieskie" (Mt 5, 3). Błogosławieni nie są ci, którzy imponują innym albo uważają, że sami sobie wystarczą. Są nimi ubodzy w duchu, cisi, miłosierni i prześladowani. Według powszechnie przyjętych kryteriów nie są to cechy bohaterów. Są one jednak znakami serca, które nauczyło się pokładać ufność w Bogu, a nie we własnych siłach. Właśnie na tym polega świętość św. Teresy z Lisieux i wszystkich świętych.

Uroczystość Wszystkich Świętych nie jest świętem duchowej elity. Przypomina nam raczej co łaska Boża może dokonać w naszej zwyczajnej codzienności. Święci to nie ludzie, którzy uniknęli słabości i cierpienia, ale ci, którzy pozwolili, by te doświadczenia pogłębiły ich zaufanie do Boga.

To naprawdę dobra nowina dla każdego z nas! Im bardziej jesteśmy mali i słabi, tym bardziej jesteśmy gotowi, by stać się wielkimi świętymi.

O. John Muir

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Everyday Saints

Growing up I thought saints were larger than life people with extraordinary stories. The thought that I could one day be revered as a saint by anyone seemed crazy. I wrote my essays on different saints every year in Catholic school right around All Saints Day. These were stories about people I had never met, and I assumed I would never meet anyone like them going forward.

Now that I am older, I realize that I was wrong back then and my immaturity of both mind and heart did not allow me to see that there are saints among us all the time. I have met many people in my life that I would call living saints. They are holy people who give of themselves to God and others in profound ways. Their relationship with Jesus is evident and they live their lives in ways that people witness the transformative power of love.

As a child I was wrong about saints, but even more importantly, I didn't fully realize that all of us are called to be saints! Me, a saint? Holiness is not something simply studied in books. It is the way of life we are all called to live. The call comes from Jesus Christ and each of us must respond. If we are still thinking like children, we may choose to stay silent and live accordingly. If we are more mature in our faith then we might not only respond, we might one day have a school child write a report about us.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Advent Conversations with Benedict XVI

Rediscover the Wonder: A Christmas Journey for Your Soul
As winter approaches, Christmas calls us to slow down and reflect—yet the world often tells us to rush. If you are longing to deepen your spirituality and find a sense of sacred calm amidst the holiday hustle, you don't have to do it alone. Deacon Tom is opening a space to come together, reflect, and prepare our hearts.

We will meet for four Sunday mornings after the 9 AM Mass to share in the quiet and reflective space:
Dates: November 22 (skip Nov. 29 for parish retreat), December 06, 13 & 20th
Time: 10:00 – 11:30 AM
Location: The John Neumann Building (little Red School Building next to Rectory)

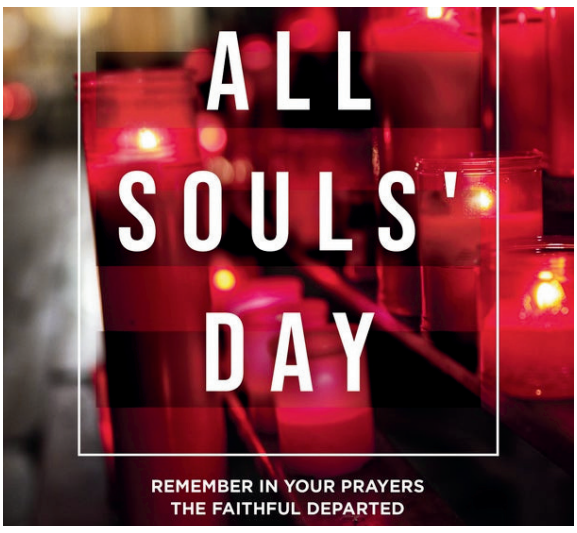

Our guide for these gatherings will be Pope Benedict XVI's readable book, Jesus of Nazareth: The Infancy Narratives (available on Amazon for $13). To help guide our hearts and thoughts, Deacon Tom will send out a brief reading assignment (about 25 pages) and a thoughtful question or two before each meeting. Let's slow down, share some meaningful conversation, and truly prepare our hearts for the wonder of Christmas. Deacon Tom can't wait to share this journey with you.

If you are interested or have questions, please send Deacon Tom an email (Tombongiacobbe2@gmail.com) or call him (609-466-2236).
